How to Write a Works Cited Page

This page is a listing of all your MLA. Basically, you are just writing it straight off your source cards.

Put your sources in alphabetical order by the first word of the MLA source. Numerals come first.

Put the words Works Cited at the top of your page. Do not underline it or bold it

Works Cited

Let the new line start whenever you run out of room. It is OK that it will not be at the same place as your source card.

"7 Outrageous Gods in History." Slapped Ham, 2 Mar. 2015, slappedham.com/7-outrageous-gods-in-history/.

Baring-Gould, Sabine. The Book of Werewolves. Senate, 1995.

If your URL is long and makes the line look odd, you can break it by hitting the space bar.

DeWit, Alex Dudok. "Netflix Boards 'Oni,' Tonko House's Family Series Inspired by Japanese Mythology." Cartoon Brew, 2019, www.cartoonbrew.com/streaming/netflix-boards-oni-tonko-houses-family-series-inspired-by-japanese-mythology-182824.html.

"Egyptian Mythology: Osiris Myth Animated." You Tube, uploaded by Captivating History, 14 June 2018, www.youtube.com/watch?v=TiNLx8h5jVE.

Gaiman, Neil. Norse Mythology. W. W. Norton and Company, 2017.

Don't count articles (the, a, an) when alphabetizing.

Green, Miranda. "The Celtic Goddess as Healer." The Concept of the Goddess, edited by Sandra Billington and Miranda Green, Routledge, 1999, pp. 26-40.

Single Space the MLA entry. Double Space between them.

"The Many Acts of Maui." Visit Hawaii, Trip Companions, 2019, www.visithawaii.org/maui.htm.

Riordin, Rick. Percy Jackson's Greek Heroes. Hyperion, 2015.

Do NOT bullet point or number your entries.

You do NOT include your source code.
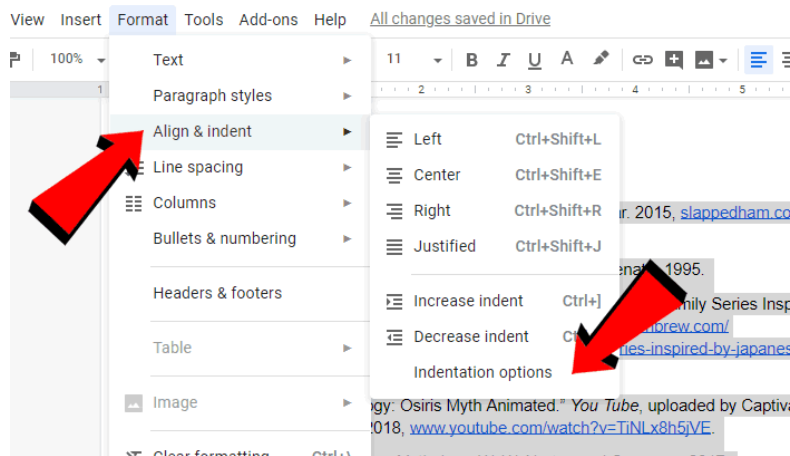

People often forget to put the final period.

Don't forget to remove http:// from URLs
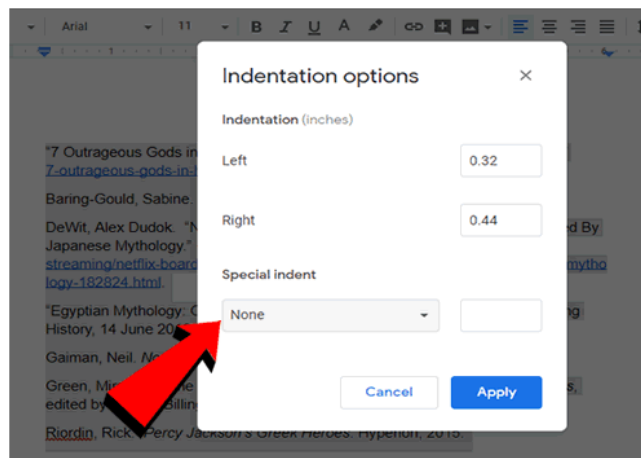

How to Reverse Indent

Type in your MLA and let it text wrap as normal. Then highlight the MLA and choose FORMAT.

In the drop-down menu, choose ALIGN & INDENT then choose INDENTATION OPTIONS.

Now change SPECIAL INDENT from NONE to HANGING.

That's it!
